Religious Studies 001G: Myth Ritual & Symbol

Lecture: T/Th 9:00-10:20A
206 Olson Hall
Fall Quarter 2016
Prof. Naomi Janowitz

Two religious taboos outline the basis of culture:

Taboos against incest
and cannibalism

Different religious traditions have enacted these taboos in a stunning variety of ways. This course will examine the history of food and sexual taboos as expressed in religious myths and rituals.

RST 001G is introductory and no prior academic study of religion is expected.

New GE: Arts & Humanities, Oral Skills, Visual Literacy, World Cultures, Writing Experience

Discussion Sections

Discussion A01  Tues 4:10-5:00P  CRN 53288
Discussion A02  Tues 5:10-6:00P  CRN 53289
Discussion A03  Wed 4:10-5:00P  CRN 53290
Discussion A04  Wed 5:10-6:00P  CRN 53291