This course aims to introduce the students to topics that are central to the Islamic tradition, such as Muhammad, the Qur’an, Islamic law, theology, philosophy, worship, and mysticism. The course will also cover topics of interest to students who want to understand contemporary Islam, such as gender, violence, and varying experiences of Islam in different historical and cultural settings, including the contemporary US.

GE (Old): AH or SS; D and WE
GE (New): AH or SS; WC and WE